Pastor's Corner...

Who do people say that I am? How do I appear to others? These are the questions that many people ask, but especially those who are in the public eye.

When Jesus asked the question, He wasn't asking it for His own sake but for the sake of the apostles. Jesus was sure who He was. He has an extraordinary self-possession that He was able to face both in praise and hostility with utter calmness.

Some people have a hunger for approval. They have never grown up with a sense of being ignored, unappreciated, and criticized. People who have a real deep doubt about themselves are always looking for confirmation from others.

We need to find our own reality so that we can stand on our own feet. Then we won't need to be propped up by others. There are people who have a steady flame shining from deep inside them. This is not extinguished when others criticize or ignore them, for it is not dependent on what others think of them. It is what they think of themselves with a quiet certainty.

Today's Gospel shows what crazy ideas people had of Him. Some thought He was John the Baptist (already dead). Others thought He was one of the ancient prophets come back to life.

Jesus was the Messiah, as Peter correctly understood. But He was not to be a glorious Messiah as the people expected. He was to be a suffering one. He wouldn't rule, He would serve. Jesus wasn't interested in projecting the kind of image the people wanted. He knew He has a God-given destiny, and would not be deflected from it.

We are in trouble if our main concern is to project a good image and to live up to people's expectations. The only thing that we are called to be is to be true to ourselves.

We can't be fully alive and happy otherwise. But we should not be content until we are the best that we can be. So, whatever our path in life, what really matters is that we should be ourselves before God, and before others. This is the journey home.

A Special Prayer for Father's Day

Fathers everywhere –
We honor you and wish to say
*May God's blessings be with you
In a special way today!*

From a Father's strength
We learn so we may teach
Our children to be kind and caring
With everyone they meet.

When times are rough
Your guiding hand points the way to go
May we follow in your footsteps
Right from wrong our actions show.

Now, on this Father's Day
Our tributes go to you
*Fathers, grandpas, uncles, brothers
All our dear friends, too.*

Give Dad a special hug today.

God bless! Fr. Pat

Liturgy Corner..

A pendant in the shape of a cross is one of the most popular forms of jewelry. Women and men alike often wear one hanging from a gold or silver chain around their necks. Children often receive one when they make their first Communion. For some people, putting on the cross each day is an intensely religious experience. For others, the gold or silver emblem that they wear possesses nothing more than some sentimental value. For some, it serves only to make a fashion statement.

Writing in the second half of the first century, it is unlikely that the Gospel writers would foresee the boon that Christianity gave to modern-day goldsmiths. For Luke, taking up the cross daily did not mean fastening a piece of jewelry around his neck. He lived in a time when it was clear that being a Christian meant living a very different way of life. It meant getting up before dawn on the first day of the week to hasten to the early morning gathering for the breaking of the bread. Sunday was a day of work like any other. It meant contributing to the welfare of others instead of looking out only for oneself. And it meant being prepared to face persecution because one's faith was not consistent with the commonly held opinions of the day.

The Christian values of Sunday prayer, charity toward others, and a strong faith in God have not changed. They are still things that the followers of Jesus cling to as important aspects of the faith. As any disciple would admit, taking up the cross is not about wearing a piece of metal dangling from a chain. Amulets like that can be a reminder of the interior life one hopes to espouse, but they do not guarantee salvation. Only losing our life in Christ will lead to that.

Keeping Your Child's Personal Information Personal

If your children give out personal information over the Internet, not only is it easy to track, it's tough to completely remove. Emphasize to them how important it is that they keep personal information private. Make sure that they have a strong (ideally, alphanumeric) username and password that don't reveal anything personal. Encourage them not to give out their e-mail address, if they have one. If your children tell you that they have given out personal information online, contact your Internet service provider or the site where the information is posted to see what you can do to have it removed. For more information, visit www.netsmartz.org. For particular help, call: Jean Sokol, Director of the Office of Child & Youth Protection 602-354-2396.

Our Call to Care...

Mary is 93 and can no longer drive. She has no way to get her groceries. Can you help? Dozens of people are waiting for shopping assistance. Others need rides to their doctors or yearn for friendly visitors.

Our parish is part of Duet, an interfaith nonprofit. Please attend Duet's next volunteer orientation to be matched with a person who needs you! It can be as simple as giving a ride once a month, at times you choose. Duet's wait list has doubled in just two months. That list will grow with cuts to Dial-a-Ride and Reserve-a-Ride - unless we rise to the challenge. See orientation dates at www.duetaz.org plus a map showing people waiting for volunteers. Or, call 602-274-5022 to offer or ask for help. Thank you for answering this call to care!
