The Most Reverend Eduardo Alanis Nevares

Titular Bishop of Natchez and
Auxiliary Bishop of Phoenix

Pope Benedict XVI appointed Rev. Eduardo Alanis Nevares to be the first Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Phoenix on Monday, May 11, 2010. Nevares, age 56, was born in San Antonio, Texas. He was ordained to priesthood in 1981 after attending numerous seminaries in Missouri, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, and Texas. He became a part of the religious community of the Missionaries of Our Lady of LaSalette and from 1993 to 2002, was a pastor of St. Patrick Parish in Lufkin, Texas. Bishop Nevares was the vocation director of the Missionaries of Our Lady of LaSalette and of the Diocese of Tyler, in Texas. Bishop Nevares has taken on the duty of serving the Diocese of Phoenix in its entirety, including the counties of Mohave, Coconino, Yavapai, and Maricopa. The Diocese is home to just over three-fourths of a million Catholics out of the 4.5 million people in the population.

The Bishop's Rite of Episcopal Ordination was held July 19, 2010 at Saint Thomas Aquinas Roman Catholic Church in Avondale, AZ. With more than 20 bishops present from throughout the West, including soon-to- retire Cardinal Roger Mahony of Los Angeles, Bishop Nevares was elevated to their ranks through a series of prayers, laying-on of hands and presentation of items that designate him as a bishop. Bishop Thomas Olmsted of Phoenix led the service. He was assisted in the ordination by Archbishop Michael Sheehan of Santa Fe, who led the Diocese of Phoenix briefly prior to Olmsted's arrival, and Bishop Alvaro Corrada of Tyler, Texas, Nevares' hometown. In his homily, Bishop Olmsted encouraged Bishop Nevares, who will function as his right-hand man, to serve the faithful with courage. "The office of bishop is one of service, not of prestige," Olmsted said. "It is our privilege and our duty to serve and not be served, to put others' needs ahead of our own and to resist all temptation to lord it over anyone."

Pastor's Corner...

In our Gospel reading this weekend, Jesus wants us to pray to God with the same comfort which we call on a parent or close friend. He tells us that what we ask for will always be given in God's understanding mysterious ways. WE realize that sometimes the things we want and that seem good to us can, in fact, be harmful. Parents often have to turn down the child's request, not because they do not love him or her, but because they see harm in what he or she asks for.

God demonstrates this same care towards us. He may answer us, therefore, in ways we do not expect. Christ assures us, "If you, with all your sins, know how to do good things, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him." Within God's mysterious love, then, we can be certain that we will receive if we ask and we will find if we seek. Like the door of a generous friend or parent, God's door will surely open when we knock in prayerful need.

Prayer of Petition

I asked for health that I might do great things;
I was given infirmity that I might do better things.
I asked for riches that I might be happy;
I was given poverty that I might be wise.
I asked for power that I might have the praise of men;
I was given weakness that I might feel the need for God.
I asked for all things that I might enjoy life;
I was given life that I might enjoy all things.
I got nothing that I asked for, but everything I hoped for.
Almost despite myself my unspoken prayers were answered.
I am, among all men, most richly blessed.

Anonymous

IMPORTANT: Contrary to popular opinion, it wasn't the apple on the tree that got us banished from Paradise. It was the pair on the ground!

Have a great week. Give prayer – real prayer – a chance. It works! God is waiting to hear from you.

God bless! Fr. Pat

Liturgy Corner..

People have lots of prayers that they would like answered. Whether it is petitions written into the Book of Intercessions at church, requests made of a priest or a friend, entreaties offered to God before bed, or appeals made in the midst of a crisis, we are always looking for an answer. Sometimes we pray knowing what we want, like a child sitting on Santa's lap with a list of Christmas toys. And many times we pray with the expectation that God will see things our way and give us what we ask for.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus teaches His disciples about prayer. Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is a little different from Matthew's, but it is essentially the same. In Jesus' methodology, prayer starts with praising God (hallowed be your name) and then asks God to do what God wants (your kingdom come). Only then does prayer move on to posing our requests for God's consideration (give us each day our daily bread). And finally we ask for God's help (forgive us our sins). The Lord's Prayer became so much a part of Christian praying that the Fathers of the Church (early Christian writers like St. Augustine, St. Gregory, and St. Leo the Great) recommended that if a person couldn't remember any other prayer (like a psalm) he or she should just pray the Lord's Prayer instead.

The method of prayer that Jesus lays out for His disciples includes one final aspect -one that we like to forget. Luke's version puts it this way, "for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us." More commonly we say, "as we forgive those who trespass against us." Are we ready to have God act that way toward us? Do we really want God to treat us the way we treat others? That is the challenge, if we continue to pray the Lord's Prayer day after day.

Stewardship...

Luke and the 4-Pillars of Stewardship

Today's Gospel has elements of all 4 Pillars.

Hospitality – It is interesting to note that it seems as if Jesus is not only extolling us to welcome those who come to our door, but also to be persistent when we seek Hospitality.

Prayer – The original Our Father, an incredibly profound prayer.

Formation – Jesus tells us to seek and we shall find. Is He saying that we should be life-long learners; always asking God to teach us the way?

Service – Today's message is similar to the parable of the Good Samaritan? Be ready to serve, even if you have already gone to bed.

Always Keep an Up-to-Date Photo of Your Child

Picture this: A good photo could save a child's life. One of the most important tools for law enforcement in the case of a missing child is an up-to-date (take a new one every six months), good-quality photograph. The photograph should be a recent head-and-shoulders color photograph of the child in which the face is clearly seen. It should be of school-portrait quality, and the background should be plain or solid so it does not distract from the subject. When possible, the photograph should be in a digitized form and available on a compact disk (CD), as opposed to just a hard copy. This minimizes the time necessary to scan, resize, and make color corrections before disseminating it to law enforcement. The photograph should have space for accurate, narrative description useful to identify the child, such as name, nickname, height, weight, sex, age, eye color, identifying marks, glasses, and braces. For particular help, call: Jean Sokol, Director of the Office of Child & Youth Protection 602-354-2396.

Blessed Sacrament School Openings...

Why Does Our Parish Need Your Gift?

None of us likes to give a gift that is not needed. That is why we spend so many hours shopping for just the perfect gift. So it is understandable that you might question, "Does the parish need my gift? Does my weekly financial contribution make a difference?" Here are some of the ways your gift is needed and does make a difference.

Your contributions to Blessed Sacrament help:

- Pay staff salaries so that the ordained clergy have more time to visit the sick and comfort those who truly need to feel Jesus in their lives at this time.
- Support our school so that we can make it affordable for families to give their children a Catholic education.

- Pay the utility bills that keep the lights on and the rooms cool (or warm) for all those who gather here for prayer, education or social ministry.
- Purchase the many supplies that are needed for our liturgies and sacraments, including hosts, wine, candles, prayer books and hymnals.
- Landscape our grounds and maintain our facilities, so that we always present a welcoming image to all those who may pass by this House of God.
