"Music Through The Decades" by Mike Chamberlin

Author, Musician and Past TV News and Sports Anchor

MIKE CHAMBERLIN IS BEST KNOWN for his 20 years here in the valley as a TV news and sports anchor for KPHO-TV (Channel 5) and KTVK-TV (Channel 3). After retiring from 40 years of broadcasting, Mike returned to his first love of singing and entertaining. In 2000, he released a CD, "Mike Chamberlin's Christmas Collection," which contains his signature song, "The Whisper," his original work about Christ's impact on human-kind. "I decided, at the end of my broadcasting career, that maybe this is a calling," said Chamberlin. "I have been given a gift, and I would be almost abusing it if I didn't follow it." He moved from TV mikes to microphones on the chancels of church sanctuaries, caressing the strings of his guitar and singing about Jesus and Mary. Recently, Mike published a book entitled: God Has A Sense Of Humor For Heaven's Sake. It is a collection of family friendly religious humor that he loves to share during his concerts.
