John the Baptist had prepared the people for the coming of the Messiah. He believed that Jesus was that Messiah. But now, locked up in a dark dungeon with the threat of death hanging over him, it seems that he began having doubts about Jesus.

John’s idea of the Messiah was that of a stern, uncompromising judge who would execute a fiery judgement. But Jesus wasn’t living up to that image. Instead of acting like a judge, he was acting like a savior. His radiant friendliness contrasted sharply with the severity of John. John was an ascetic who lived apart from the people. But Jesus mixed with the people, eating and drinking with sinners. John prophesied the judgment of God; Jesus prophesied the salvation of God.

Knowing that his life was ending, John wanted to know for sure, so he sent two of his disciples to question Jesus. The two asked Jesus, “Are you the one who is to come?” Jesus might have replied with a straightforward answer, “Yes, I am.” But he didn’t.

There is a well-known saying: Actions speak louder than words. So, instead of trying to convince John’s messengers with words, Jesus pointed to the works he was doing. Those works were exactly the kind Isaiah had predicted for the messianic times. He was quite happy to let his deeds speak for him. And they spoke eloquently.

Yes, Jesus was “the one who was to come.” But where can people find him?

Once, a group of salesmen were attending a sales convention. They had assured their families that they would be home in time for dinner. But the meeting ran overtime so they had to run for the train. Tickets in hand, they dashed along the platform. One of them knocked over a table supporting a basket of apples. But neither he nor any of his companions stopped to help the young boy who staffed the apple stand.

All reached the train and boarded it with a sigh of relief. But then one of them felt a twinge of compassion for the boy whose apple stand had been overturned. He immediately decided to do something about it. Saying goodbye to his companions, he returned to the scene of the accident. He was glad he did so. He discovered that the boy was blind.

The salesman began to gather up the apples. As he did so he noticed that some of them were bruised. He took out this wallet and handing the boy some money he said, “Here, take this for the damage we did. I hope we didn’t spoil your day.” As he started to walk away, the bewildered boy called after him, “Are you Jesus?”

Are you Jesus? In a sense, he was because he acted like Jesus. So where is Jesus to be found today? In his disciples! Blessed are we if we do not lose faith in Jesus. Twice blessed are we if, like Jesus, we are able to show forth our faith in deeds of love and mercy. People will encounter Jesus in us.

******

A father asked his young daughter what she would like for Christmas. She said that what she wanted more than anything was a baby brother. And it so happened; on Christmas Eve, mother came from the hospital clutching a baby boy.

The following year, the father again asked his daughter what she would like for Christmas. “Well,” she replied, “if it’s not too uncomfortable for Mummy, I’d like to have a pony.”

As you go about your activity this week, say and extra prayer for yourself, your family, and your pastor!!

God Bless! Fr. Pat

As a community, we walk with you in your grief and offer this as a sign of the life God brings to us in Christ, who has become our “Tree of Life.”

Well what is the good news?
The good news is four things.
First - God loves you.
Second - God’s love is unconditional.
Third - He wants to establish a love relationship with you.
Fourth - He wants you to establish a love relationship with each other... Virtue is just as infectious as vice.

Blessed Sacrament Welcomes You

We are a blessed sacrament!

Give a sign of the Warmth of God’s Love
Blanket Drive

The nights are cold, people are homeless, let’s share the warmth of God’s love!

Between now and January 15, bring a gently used & freshly washed or new blanket to the Office of Faith Formation and Education or RE Class, Ascend, Summit, or any Adult Education session (Bible Study, Christian Initiation). All collected blankets will be given to local agencies for direct distribution to people who are homeless.

NOTE: between December 25 & January 2 please drop blankets off in the main parish office.

Blessed By You!

Someone asked me, “How are you able to cook a meal like that for 200 people?” My response was, “Bigger pots, 100 more cooks, and another 50 volunteers!” Our Thanksgiving Dinner was a really beautiful event thanks to each of you! The Social Hall was turned into a lovely dining room, complete with centerpieces of fresh flower arrangements and votive lights. Twelve chafing dishes were lined up with everything, which included a total of 18 turkeys and 8 gallons of green bean casserole; ambrosia salad, deviled eggs, stuffed celery, and fruit and nut breads filled the appetizer round; and pumpkin and apple pie with whipped cream topped off a much appreciated meal. We did run out of mashed potatoes, so next year we will ask for 100 lbs! Everyone also went home with a little box of turkey, etc. for that wonderful late night snack.

St. James tells us that “Faith without works is dead”; well I suspect he was giving all of you a big thumbs up as you set up, cooked, served, and WASHED and DRIED an incredible amount of dishes, pots and pans, and a ton of silverware! Blessed Sacrament Parishioners, you are an incredible giving force... Not only did you provide this dinner, but while it was going on, 900 bags of groceries were being dropped off for St. Vincent De Paul! There is no doubt that you all went home exhausted but certainly exhilarated by a renewed “attitude of gratitude...”

We have much to be thankful for: our Faith, our family, our friends... Kathy Donaldson who heads up the “Helping Hands” group called the next day to say, “None of our children went to bed hungry on Saturday night...” Nothing more need be said, except God is GOOD and so are YOU! We thank God for each one of you - for all you do, day after day, for the least of his brothers... Blessed Sacrament parish is indeed blessed by YOU!

Sincerely,
Fr. Pat, Fr. John, Marianne Canning, and Pat Hersey!
December 24, 11am to 12:15pm. As we celebrate the eve of Christ’s birth, join Bishop Olmsted in praying the rosary outside the Planned Parenthood facility at 5771 W Eugie Ave, Glendale, AZ. Please park along nearby streets and walk to the site; do not park in local business or medical parking lots. Bring water and shade.

Angel Tree Donations
Please return wrapped gifts, securely labeled* with ANGELS identifying ages, no later than Sunday, December 18. For those of you who choose to give monetary gifts (cash, checks, gift cards), please place the gift in the collection basket. Many thanks for your extraordinary generosity!
* In the past, we have had a number of labels fall off making it very difficult to determine the correct recipient. Please double check that labels are not only tied, but taped as well.

Year-End Giving
2016 presents us with a unique situation. Each year, we normally budget for 52 Sundays of plate collections (your weekly gift) plus Christmas. This year, Christmas falls on a Sunday, so we only have 51 Sundays of plate collections plus Christmas. As you plan your year-end donations, please prayerfully consider for December 25th including what you would normally give on a Sunday in addition to your Christmas gift. Whatever you’re able to give, thank you for your generosity.

Save the Date!
Mary’s Knights Annual Rummage is on Saturday, January 21, 2017, 7am to 3pm in the Social Hall.

Baptism Class Rescheduled
At Baptism, we are made new in Christ Jesus. This month’s baptism class has been rescheduled for Monday, December 12th at 6:30pm. Please call the office if you’re interested in Baptizing a member of your family!

Now Hiring
